

Psychic Voices Intrusion

(Poem)

Psychic voices intrusion

This is no illusion

These strange things are real

Voices not my own

And bodily intrusions

This is real

Just after midnight

These spirit attachments

Starting some shit

Starting some shit

With their voices

And their bodily intrusions

Who would believe

Perhaps it's best

To remain oblivious

And never experience

Them starting

Some shit

Being attacked

In the middle of the night

The fight is on

To get an ounce of sleep

Voices

From the astral planes

Could they be

Astral life forms

Could they be

Tonight is another battle

Tonight.....

Is a strange land

All its own

Tonight

The voices

Serenade

With psychological warfare

A psychic voices attack

These strange things

Are real
